

JULY 20TH, 2018

THE GLASS MAKES THE DIFFERENCE WITH CHRIS SAWYER

The Glass Makes the Difference Class at CVM

Local Sommelier Christopher Sawyer will be your Stolzle guide through a lively, sensory experience that includes analysis, discussion and tasting of wine through the nuances of stemware choice.

Sawyer has experienced many styles of wine glasses and conducted an extensive stemware review published in Wine Business Monthly (Feb 2011) comparing a cross-section of stemware. This educational seminar will truly enlighten your senses and stimulate your palate.

This class is presented at The CVM Store from 1:00 – 3:00 p.m. Cost is $25.00 per person. RSVP: Martha 707-938-7917

Christopher Sawyer is an internationally-renowned sommelier, wine educator, journalist, consultant, critic and public speaker: He travels the world following trends in wine and participating as a VIP judge in the world's top wine competitions, and has been featured in a wide range of national media, including USA Today, MSN, NBC, ABC, CBS, Redbook, The Hollywood Reporter, Maxim, National Geographic Traveler, CNN and Esquire.

Chris was voted Best Sommelier in Sonoma County by readers in The Bohemian's Best of the North Bay issue 2014 through 2017.

Class space is limited reserve now

THE CVM STORE

19626 Eighth St. East
Sonoma, CA 95476
707-938-7917

www.cvmgrapes.com

Friday July 20th, 2018
1:00 – 3:00 p.m.